

Economic Tsunami - Who really caused it???

April 03, 2009

The following series of Q&A ought to settle once and for all who really runs the show and whom we ought really to fear not 'THEY' (see my previous entry as to who 'They' are). The current economic collapse has been orchestrated at the highest levels of human power as embodied in the banking establishments that control the finances of the world. If anyone is stupid enough to believe that all that is transpiring is accidental need not read any further; it is better for him to keep wallowing in his ignorance and hope that the coming economic tsunami will not overwhelm and drown him as the natural tsunami overwhelmed and drowned hundreds of thousands in 2004. However human beings alone neither have the intelligence nor the unity to orchestrate and execute so perfectly on a worldwide scale the collapse that is now occurring. No, there are unseen intelligences and powers that control and manage the affairs of this world; human leaders are mere puppets doing the bidding of their ungodly spirit hosts. The Bible calls these creatures 'devils' but it is important to understand that these devils are not funny red creatures with pointy tails and pitchforks as portrayed by the Catholic church but rather highly intelligent and technologically advanced beings that have plagued mankind since the fall thousands of years ago. The creatures are like the "Goa'uld" of the Stargate TV series, extremely intelligent and powerful non-humans that use human hosts to do their bidding.

Isa 24:21, 'And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. This scripture makes a distinction between the host of the high ones and the kings of the Earth. Kings of the Earth are the Popes, Queens, Kings, Presidents, Prime Ministers and other leaders that apparently rule this planet. This scripture and others in the Bible reveal to us the fact that human beings are mere puppets doing the bidding of higher powers that do not even reside upon the surface of the Earth. In reality the real high command of human affairs is not even upon the Earth, it is somewhere up there, maybe on the moon. The moon being the headquarters of the devil is mere speculation but who knows? Jesus did not dispute the devil when he told Jesus that all Earthly Kingdoms were under his control and he gave them to whomsoever he willed. All that the devil wanted in exchange was for Jesus to worship him which tempted Jesus not one bit already being the King of the entire Universe let alone the Earth. However this incident establishes the fact that all kings of the Earth have to worship the devil in order to obtain their kingdoms. Any person seeking power does so not for altruistic reasons but for personal profit and the higher up they get on the rungs of the ladder of worldly success they more beholden they get to the devil. The gophers on the lower rungs or on the base of the pyramid are devil worshipers by default; they believe in the 'system'; the very system that has been designed by the devil to enslave the mindless masses and keep them ever in bondage to the rat race. The closer a person gets to the apex of the pyramid of success as defined by the world not God, the more knowingly and consciously they become worshipers of the devil. As a matter of fact the supreme human leaders of politics, religion and finance in this world are in the every sense high priests of the devil. They engage in ceremonies and rites to invoke devils, and they receive their commands directly from these unseen evil spirits that reside within them and without.

In the movie ‘Angel Heart’ with Mickey Rourke, there is a scene in which MR’s father-in-law who is a very rich man tells the Mickey character that ‘the Prince of Darkness protects the powerful.’ This is a very true statement; the rich and powerful know where their wealth and power comes from and who they must needs do homage to. If the leaders of our world were godly men and women their deeds would also be godly. But since the advent of civilization what have the leaders of men, the Nimrods, the Alexanders, the Caesars given mankind except for misery and death. What did Jesus tell us about the devil in John 10:10, ‘The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy... Steal, Kill, and Destroy: do these words not describe human history of the past 5000 plus years? Has anything changed in modern times? The answer is both NO and YES! No nothing has changed; everywhere we look we find a dog eat dog world, every man for himself is the mantra of the day as it has been for thousands of years. Profit above all seems to be the ideal that men actively pursue at the expense of all else and is it any wonder then that wars never cease, that somehow we can never achieve peace, that inequalities get broader where one people or nation live gluttonous lives while another people and nation starve to death. The rich steal from the poor, the powerful kill the weak, and the keepers of the flock are themselves ravenous wolves that destroy the innocent flock that they have sworn to protect. Anyone that has studied history or simply by watching the evening news it is impossible to conclude that we live in a sane, healthy, righteous world. But if Satan is indeed god of this world then why should we expect otherwise? If our politicians, business leaders and religious heads are indeed following Satan rather than God is it any surprise that our politicians constantly lie to us, that bankers devise usurious schemes with the blessing of government to steal from their own citizens, that religious heads are pedophiles that have made the house of God a den of thieves? No it is indeed foolish for us to expect any different. It is a part of the carefully crafted deception that human leaders are altruistic men and women working on behalf of, or for the betterment of the masses. A priest saying mass for you will charge you money but that’s all he’s interested in: the money not your soul; you better look to God yourself if you want to save your soul not the priest or the Pope.

However the answer to the question whether things have changed in modern times is also YES because things are not just the same as they have always been they are about to get a whole lot worse. If we truly are living in the days of the Apocalypse then watch out ‘For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.’ (Matthew 24:21-22) Jesus forewarned us that in the last days before his return things would get so bad that were it not for his direct intervention by destroying all the armies that will be gathered for all out war that all life on Earth would be wiped out. This brings me to the subject of this entry as to who really controls and directs the affairs of man, and of the Cosmos? Who really has caused this rapidly deteriorating economic collapse? What you have read so far may lead you to conclude that it is Satan but that is only partially true because Satan himself is not an independent power, he himself is absolutely controlled and managed by a power greater and higher than himself. Revelation 19:6, ‘And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.’ The Bible calls God OMNIPOTENT or ALL POWERFUL or ALMIGHTY (all mighty.) Such superlative adjectives prove that God alone has all power and therefore no one else has any power even though it may seem to be the case, as for instance in the case of human authorities: The President is portrayed as being the most powerful man on Earth whereas he is probably the least powerful, and the most controlled man on Earth.
