Extra, Extra, Extra: Pigs can fly

It now appears to have been confirmed that pigs can fly; and by the sounds of it Swine Airlines will soon reach cruising altitude of 35,000 feet, at least according to The WHO. The following headlines from news releases by such august bodies as The WHO confirm this observation. 'WHO': Swine flu cases pass 20,000 worldwide': Virus blamed for deaths in 66 countries; 1,000 new infections in U.S. "We are at Phase 5 but are getting closer to Phase 6," Keiji Fukuda, acting WHO assistant director-general, told journalists during a telephone conference.

Inquiring minds would want to know how is it possible that 66 countries have such sophisticated diagnostic tools at their disposal that they can accurately determine that it is these little miss piggies that are actually killing these folks? I can't imagine there being a level 4 lab in Outer Mongolia to do such diagnostics, and confirm the number of deaths with such accuracy. If it is just The WHO or CDC teams that are doing the detection work, in the vein of the movie Outbreak, I can't imagine them having so many teams that they can actually send them to 66 countries where there have been reported deaths, let alone all of the countries that have reported it but without deaths. So here we have an apparently 'new' never before seen virus that somehow emerged after combining 3 different kinds of viruses, (human, swine, and avian), and yet 66 countries have accurately diagnosed the virus and determined it to be the cause of infection in, get this, 20,246 cases to be exact. Not 20,000 give or take a 1000 but rather 20,246 to be exact! Ain't it comforting to know that those in charge of keeping us healthy are doing such a fine job, that within weeks they have not only perfected diagnostic tools for something completely new, but they will have a vaccine, no let me correct that, they will have two vaccines ready for the masses by fall? Actually Americans and I am sure Canadians, and Australians, and Britishers, and pretty much the entire world will be required, yes required, to take not just one shot but three shots for this lethal little piggy come this fall, <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hLqHmlVDLwM> .

Shouldn't phrases like, you will need three SHOTS ring some alarm bells inside a person's head? Sadly, most heads are filled with so much 'truth' from TV that most of these informed minds will follow the talking heads and get themselves shot right up. What these shots will contain is anyone's guess but if I was a guessing man I'd say there will be at least a few little piggies in them. Can't have a pandemic without a disease now, can you? And if the little piggies just don't mutate fast enough to do the job, a little shot in the arm can't hurt now, can it? What job do you ask? Well, let's put it this way, according to certain powerful and wealthy folks there are just way too many people on the planet, they classify the vast majority of the earth's inhabitants as 'useless eaters', and according to these elites a few people, let's say around 5 billion, need to be eliminated to ensure the survival of the planet. Don't believe me, just do a Google search on 'depopulation agenda' and see for yourself. Nothing like a short video for some enlightenment so just click on the following link and watch:

While I firmly believe that such agendas are not mere fiction, and will be implemented in the near future, I do not agree with the causes attributed to mere human plans and purposes. There is little doubt that we are on the threshold of loss of human life, not to mention destruction of property on a scale unprecedented in human history. However it would behoove us to remember that this destruction comes from the Almighty, not the Council on Foreign Relations, or the Club of Rome or the Vatican or any other human organization. Yes, they will be used by God to bring about this destruction, and being legends in their own minds the elites will think, and maybe even believe that it is their plans that are being fulfilled not realizing that they are mere puppets in the hands of the Omnipotent God, even as their master Satan is a mere puppet doing God's bidding. Such destruction, and loss of life in the millions and billions will come about as a result of God's judgment upon man, the methods used will be varied but will include such things as pandemics, diseases created in laboratories, and deliberately spread through vaccinations. There will be a massive campaign in the fall to educate, rather condition, people to accept these shots; isn't it amazing how they have already charted the growth of the disease, and calculated that it will mutate by the fall into something more deadly for which people (sheeple) will need a shot or two or three? If the mutation has not yet occurred how can they have a vaccine ready that will work? Inquiring minds should ask these questions, no? And why vaccines? Haven't oral remedies worked for things like flu for centuries? Sad though it is, I do believe these massive depopulation scenarios will become commonplace in the not too distant future, not because man says they will but because the Word of God tells us so. We also need to closely examine the state of our world that would warrant such drastic judgments to befall it, and I will do that in a later entry. The following scriptures alone tell us that in a short time a quarter of the world's population will fall, and sometime after that a third of the remaining 2/3^{rds} will die. Based on 6 billion, in the days of the opening of the six seals, 1.5 billion will die, and then later at least a third of the remaining 4.5 billion, meaning another 1.5 billion will suffer the same fate. That is a total of 3 billion out of 6 that the bible tells us will perish in just two plagues, is swine flu one of these? I am starting to think it might be!

Rev. 6:8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

Rev. 9:18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

In conclusion please remember him who has power over these plagues; do not be overly concerned for your physical safety: God is able to keep you safe in the midst of a raging pandemic (Psalm 91:7). First and foremost keep him in mind who has power over these plagues, who alone can keep you safe. Revelation 16:9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.
