The Prince of the kingdom of Persia / spirits that rule nations

Daniel 10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. The book of Daniel mentions the Prince of Persia, and the Prince of Greece, spirits that rule nations. The book of Ephesians mentions principalities, meaning governments in heavenly places. There is a spirit counterpart government to every earthly human government, and the true rulers of the planet are unseen spirit beings, biblically speaking devils, that rule mankind upon Earth.

When exploring alternative information coming from sources that do not believe in Jesus Christ it must be kept in mind that the ultimate author of such information is Satan, and the ultimate goal is deception. Although I study information from a variety of sources I reject most of it as false and useless unless it can be confirmed by what I read in the bible. Branton has some interesting information relating to what is inside the earth but most of the other info such as there being a galactic federation, and that there are benevolent and malignant aliens I reject. Any 'alien' whether a spirit being, what we call devils, or a corporeal being such as the 'Nordic Swedes' are malignant towards mankind, their ultimate message is a rejection of Jesus Christ. I also reject the idea of the government having made treaties with aliens etc., the elites that rule the planet have been in direct contact with Satan and his subordinate spirits for millennia. They have had access to technologies and dark knowledge such as the priests of pharaoh had for centuries going back to Nimrod. Satan has his powerful 'generals' ruling various nations and the character of the individual ruling spirit determines the 'national character' of any nation. India, for example is ruled by the spirit of 'Lust' which is a very powerful spirit, and this is reflected in the ritualized worship of sex in their temples, artwork and the general demeanor of the people. Cities too have ruling spirits that imprint their character on the citizens of any particular city; San Francisco for example is ruled by the spirit of Sodomy, New York and London by the spirit of Mammon. Spirits like humans have one major defining character trait but also many minor character traits; therefore there is not just one character trait that defines any nation, Sodomy, Mammon (love of money), Apathy, Aggression etc. may all, in varying degrees, define a nation or a city but as a rule all nations or cities have one major defining character trait that is derived from the spirit that rules that nation or city.

Just like there are human governments, there are spirit governments; the overall head of all human governments is Satan, the god of this world. In that sense there always has existed a 'one world government' since Adam was expelled from the garden. Ultimately all governments reject God and Christ, and are therefore Satanic, and therefore all nations are ruled by the spirit of antichrist not Jesus Christ, and all nations operate under the same Babylonian one world system of commerce. Though there are individual political governments over various nations, the system is the same worldwide; in the days ahead, for a brief period of time even the political differences will be done away, and we will have a political one world government headed by The Antichrist that will rule all nations.

Most of the spiritual influences placed upon a nation, a city or an individual are from unseen spirit forces using technologies to input thoughts and desires, lustful thoughts and desires in the minds of people that bring about evil fruit in both nations and individuals. However, I am of the opinion that there also exist 'corporeal' human beings that inhabit other planets and we have some interaction with these humans even today but have had much more open interaction in the past, specially in the days of Noah. There is much anecdotal evidence out there, Branton being one such source that claims that aliens are not just reptilian or even humanoid but there are actual alien humans. This is biblically supported since the bible tells us that the sons of God were, or are humans but not children of Adam, or children of the earth since Adam means earthy. Throughout history going back to Genesis 6 such humans have mingled themselves with mankind and who is to say it is not going on even today. This is the only way we can explain the difference in the physical appearance of various races. If all the inhabitants of earth had only Adam and Eve as their parents, there is no possible way that we would have so many different races today. White parents cannot beget black children, no not after a 1000 generations; neither can black parents beget white children, no not after a 1000 generations. So it is my opinion that in our past, humans from other worlds who were genetically compatible but racially different than Adam came to earth and mingled themselves with mankind. It is the offspring of Adam's daughters and these racially varied sons of God that most cultures worshiped as 'gods' that account for the different races that inhabit the planet today. Did these other world humans come from Mars, from Jupiter, from Saturn? Do they still have such human civilizations on planets, both in our solar system and beyond? Is this why ancient cultures worshiped these planets because powerful corporeal beings from such planets had come down to Earth and set themselves up as gods? In the bible the Israelites worshiped towards Jerusalem because it was the seat of their God, even today Muslims worship towards Mecca because it is a holy place for them, could it be that the ancients and moderns too worship these planets because their gods originated on these heavenly bodies? Only God, and maybe NASA knows for sure but these are all valid possibilities and are also biblical.

God, Satan, angels, devils, sons of God, world, worlds, Heaven, heavens, life on the earth, life under the earth, life in the sea, these are some of the non - human intelligent beings that the bible makes mention of in addition to the various places, both terrestrial and celestial, that the bible tells us are inhabited by such beings. It is a big universe out there and therefore should not surprise us that there are an infinite number of intelligent, and non - intelligent life forms out there. It is doubtful that even on our own planet we have yet discovered a tenth of all the life forms that inhabit it, particularly in our seas and oceans. Although such knowledge is interesting and enhances our understanding of our creator, in the end such knowledge is useless unless it enhances the knowledge of our creator.

Extra biblical sources can provide much information but it must be tested against scripture to establish its validity. There are two ways of coming to an understanding of the spirit world; one is through occult means, Ouija boards, spells, channeling, yoga, native Indian ceremonies, sweat lodges, Satan worship, ritual sex, invoking of spirits, hallucinogenic drugs, both pharmaceutical and natural such as peyote, are all methods that breakdown the natural protection that God has given us to keep us safe from the 'evil' spirit world. Once the protection is gone a doorway is opened for all manners of spirits to invade the mind and body of the practitioner of occult arts, and eventually will destroy both the mind and the body, and ultimately the soul of those who continue in such activities. The other, safer, way of coming to a knowledge of the spirit world is through prayer (to Jehovah God) and study of the bible, the King James version of the bible. As we begin to understand God we will also understand the devil and be no longer ignorant of his devices. Then the spirit world will become more real for us than the corporeal world, and we will gain a correct understanding of both this world, and of the world to come.
